WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 27th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Isaiah 5:1-7

The prophet uses the example of a vineyard for the house of Israel, citing the planning, work, and preparation that are necessary to make it happen. When the vineyard does not produce fruitful grapes, it becomes a ruin that is overgrown with thorns and briars.

Psalm - 80:9,12-16,19-20

"The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel." The Psalmist calls upon God for help to save and strengthen the "vine" of Israel.

2nd Reading - Philippians 4:6-9

Have no anxiety, but rather make all prayers and petitions to God with thanksgiving. Keep doing all things that are true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious, excellent, and praiseworthy!

Gospel - Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus offers a parable of a vineyard where the tenants reject the servants and even the landowner's son.

The Lord then applies this parable to the chief priests and the elders, showing how they have rejected the kingdom of God.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What makes you feel peaceful inside? What makes you feel restless?

Question for Youth: How do you thank God for the talents that you have? How do you give back to God through the use of your talent?

Question for Adults: What steps do you take each week to make sure you are doing as Paul directs: "Live according to what you have learned and accepted."?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

A Quote from Blessed Fulton J. Sheen

At our judgement, God will ask,
"Show me your hands. Do they have scars from giving?
Show me your feet. Are they wounded in service? Show me your heart. Have you left a place for divine love."

If you feel called to join our Society, please call us and leave a message.

"UWS Music Department Collage Concert: Near the Shores"

Join the UW–Superior Department of Music for Near the Shores, a free evening of music on Thursday, October 8, at 6:00 PM at the Cathedral of Christ the King. Our ensembles, faculty and students fill the cathedral with everything from choral and orchestral works to jazz and percussion. The closes with Near the Shores, by UWS alumni David Packa (music) and Jade Marielan (text), a reflection on being a music student at the university and concludes with the UWS Alma Mater. Concert is at 6:00 PM and is Free.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. These sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

Those with no faith-based experience.

Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to discern entry into the Catholic Church.

Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.

Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.

Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

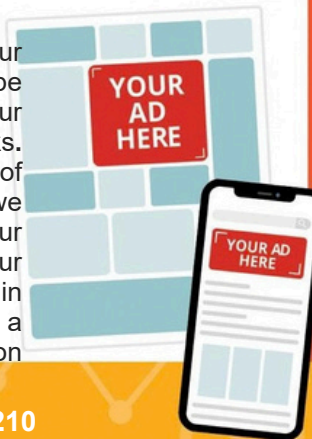

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.ck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.
