STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

In the Gospel today, the owner of the vineyard sent messengers to collect his share of the harvest from the tenant farmers; but there was not a single good steward on the property! God is the owner, we are the tenants. What sort of stewards are we?

	Sept. 26/27	Last Year
Envelopes:	97	100
Collection:	$5,556.48	$4,191.00
On-Line Giving (42)	$7,703.74	$2,797.00

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for completing a Catholic Services Appeal envelope. For those who have not yet filled one out, please do so before leaving Church today. No gift is too small, and our parish aims for 100% participation. This year, our goal is $76,356. Today, we face numerous challenges, including the shortage of priests. Through the Appeal, our parish supports diocesan ministries such as vocations and seminary education, helping meet these important needs.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 27th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Isaiah 5:1-7

- The prophet uses the example of a vineyard for the house of Israel, citing the planning, work, and preparation that are necessary to make it happen.
- When the vineyard does not produce fruitful grapes, it becomes a ruin that is overgrown with thorns and briars.

Psalm - 80:9,12-16,19-20

- "The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel."
- The Psalmist calls upon God for help to save and strengthen the "vine" of Israel.

2nd Reading - Philippians 4:6-9

- Have no anxiety, but rather make all prayers and petitions to God with thanksgiving.
- Keep doing all things that are true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious, excellent, and praiseworthy!

Gospel - Matthew 21:33-43

- Jesus offers a parable of a vineyard where the tenants reject the servants and even the landowner's son.
- The Lord then applies this parable to the chief priests and the elders, showing how they have rejected the kingdom of God.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What makes you feel peaceful inside? What makes you feel restless?

Question for Youth: How do you thank God for the talents that you have? How do you give back to God through the use of your talent?

Question for Adults: What steps do you take each week to make sure you are doing as Paul directs: "Live according to what you have learned and accepted."?

Concert is at 6:00 PM and is Free.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more are seeking information about the Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called discern entry into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

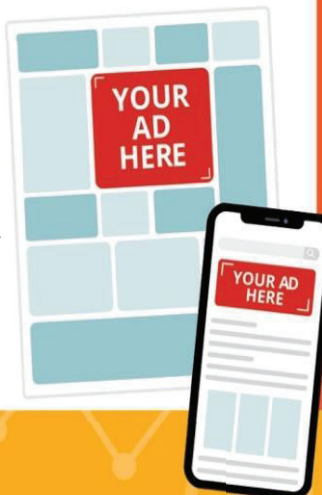

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

... Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always to be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope. (1 Peter 3:15)

Some of us are very familiar with the phrase, “To Know, Love and Serve Him” – words from The Baltimore Catechism in response to the question, “Why did God make you? Even though this question and response has been part of Catholic culture for 140 years – and things have changed so much -- it is still very relevant today.

How DO we know, love and serve God in this complicated world of ours? It’s not always easy. The Superior Catholics cluster of parishes has two learning opportunities for you.

The first is The Search, a dynamic, thought-provoking series of videos that asks What is this journey in between the event we call 'birth' and the one we call 'death'? Is the journey taking you somewhere, or are you leading yourself to some kind of destination – a destination that could extend beyond your last breath? What do you want from your life during the in between? The questions are there. And, the answers are too.

The second addresses how we live out the directive, “Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations.”

Evangelization and The Acts of the Apostles looks at what the apostles did, in the wake of the Resurrection, to do as they were commanded to establish the Church and make disciples across the known world. Using the Lectio Divina approach of reading, reflecting, responding, and contemplating, this series provides opportunities for discussion and questions.
