CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for completing a Catholic Services Appeal envelope. For those who have not yet filled one out, please do so before leaving Church today. No gift is too small, and our parish aims for 100% participation. This year, our goal is $76,356. Today, we face numerous challenges, including the shortage of priests. Through the Appeal, our parish supports diocesan ministries such as vocations and seminary education, helping meet these important needs. ($43,217.24 has been pledged thus far,)

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes found in the Mass readings for the 29th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Isaiah 45:1,4-6

- Cyrus, even though he did not know the Lord, has been chosen and anointed as ruler.
- With God's help, Cyrus will subdue nations for the sake of Israel.

Psalm - 96: 1,3,4-5,7-10

- "Give the Lord glory and honor."
- We sing to the Lord, giving glory and praise, as we worship and acknowledge God's might.

2nd Reading - 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

- Paul, with companions Silvanus and Timothy, greets the people in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Chosen by God, the people have received power through the Holy Spirit.

Gospel - Matthew 22:15-21

- The Pharisees and Herodians attempt to trap Jesus with a trick question about paying taxes.
- The Lord deftly sidesteps the trap and gives glory to God.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: In your young life, who has helped you know Jesus as a friend?

Question for Youth: We are supposed to give to God the things that are God's. What in your life is dedicated to God? How do you keep those things sacred?

Question for Adults: If you were to write a thank you note to someone or to a group who has helped you grow in faith, to whom would you write and what would you say?

AN INVITATION TO THOSE WHO BECAME CATHOLIC AS AN ADULT

Did you become Catholic as an adult? Were you baptized Catholic as a child and became fully initiated as an adult? Yes? Then we need your help.

The formal process for adults to become fully initiated into the Catholic faith is called The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults – OCIA for short. This process has also been called RCIA. OCIA usually includes weekly sessions over a number of months culminating in sacraments at Easter Vigil.

Some adults have embraced the Catholic faith via a different experience – one-on-one sessions with clergy, a religious sister, or other designated adults. This type of formation often varies according to the needs of the individual and extenuating circumstances. Sacraments happened at different times.

Regardless of how (or where) you came into this Church, we would love to speak with you about your experience. Our number of inquiries is growing as is the need to be creative and responsive. We have recognized that an untapped resource for innovation and improvement can be found in those who have already navigated this experience. Would you be open to meeting with us?

We have planned an “OCIA Reunion” for Sunday, October 25 at noon in Kress Hall. A light lunch will be followed by small group discussions of your experience. We will be asking about the type of experience you had, what worked well, what was missing, etc. The discussion will finish by 2:30.

Interested in joining us? Please pre-register by contacting Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com or by calling the Cathedral Office at 715 392 8511. Upon registering, a list of potential questions will be emailed to you prior to the event.

Becoming Catholic

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called discern entry into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know? For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

Impact

Bring faith to life. Find life in faith.

FOLLOW JESUS

Let us begin with a bold question. Does faith make a difference in your life? Is your relationship with Jesus a real, living reality, or do you go through the motions by occasionally coming to Mass or mumbling a prayer before meals, and leave all thoughts of faith behind the rest of the time?

Faith in Jesus Christ is to be the deriving force in our lives. Being a Christian should shape our daily decisions, attitudes, and actions. Yet, for many, something else is needed first – a “flash of insight” or a real encounter with Jesus. Whether your faith is deep or needs to be renewed, take a leap of faith and open your heart and mind to Jesus Christ. With the certainty that Jesus desires a meaningful relationship with us, we can be ready to follow him.

LIVE IN MISSION

Following Jesus is not only about an interior relationship with the Lord. Christ calls us into mission — to share God’s love, mercy, forgiveness, compassion, and life with others.

What is the impact of faith in your life? Do you show love to family members and friends, even when you would rather focus on yourself? Do you serve others through a parish ministry or local outreach organization? Do you give as a way of thanking God for all you have been given? Jesus is the love of God, poured out freely for all who will receive it. This is the Good News, the Gospel, of the Lord. Jesus gave completely of himself, holding nothing back. We cannot be passive recipients of this great gift! Disciples who are good stewards embody and express the one mission of Christ: to do God’s will, to proclaim the Good News of salvation, to heal the afflicted, to care for one’s sisters and brothers, to give life – life to the full – as Jesus did. (SDR, 14)

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

When we live our faith “out loud,” sharing our gifts and caring for others, we have the opportunity to cause a positive effect, to allow God’s love to be known and experienced through us.

We are sometimes hesitant to recognize the impact of our words and actions on others. Yet we know in our hearts that what we do makes a difference, for ill or for the better. As disciples, we can make a difference, in the lives of individual people and in the life of the Church, our city, and world. What impact will your stewardship make in the life of another? How will you cause an effect for the good of others, as you share in Christ’s mission to bring life, light, mercy, and peace through your words, actions, service, and ministry?

Impact
this month

1. Follow Jesus.

Open your heart and mind in prayer. Thank God for your blessings. Ask the Lord to be with you, and to guide you toward him.

2. Live in Mission.

Make a commitment to share your time and attention, talents and gifts, money and resources in order to share God’s love with others.

3. Make a Difference.

Be attentive to the impact you may have through your words and actions. Go out of your way to make a positive difference in the lives of others.

SEE GRACE IN YOUR MIDST

God is the origin of all that is good.

In our time, in which people place absolute value in scientific proof, faith, religion, and an appreciation of mystery are sometimes seen as incompatible with reason. Yet, as St. John Paul II noted, "faith and reason are like two wings on which the human spirit rises to the contemplation of truth." (Fides et Ratio, introduction)

In faith, we ponder the meaning of life and our place in the world, as children of God, who is the origin of the universe. Through reason, we strive to understand the complexities of the universe and all that it holds. As people of faith, we see grace in our midst in the beauty that surrounds us – life, relationships, and all of creation. As we ponder this, we grow in wonder and gratitude, recognizing that all comes from and belongs to God.

GIVE IN RETURN

How do we say "thank you" to God?

All we are, have, and will be has been given to us in trust by our good and gracious God. Our way of thanking God for these abundant blessings is to give, not out of obligation, but because deep within ourselves, we know that this is who we are called to be.

It is this way of life which Jesus shows us, and which we are to live as disciples. "Life shines brightly not because we are rich, beautiful or powerful. Instead, it shines when we discover within ourselves the truth that we are called by God, have a vocation, have a mission, that our lives serve something greater than ourselves. Every single creature has a role to play." (Pope Leo, 11/1/2025)

In the lives of disciples, however, something else must come before the practice of stewardship. They need a flash of insight – a certain way of seeing – by which they view the world and their relationship to it in a fresh, new light. – SDR, p. 39

LOVE GOD, LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

When asked what commandment is the greatest, Jesus replied, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (MT 22:34-40)

Love God, love our neighbor. It sounds so simple. And yet, we know that it is anything but simple. Loving God requires us to place our trust in One who cannot be seen and yet knows us better than we know ourselves. Loving God calls us to order our lives in relationship to God and God's ways, the way of self-giving love. When our heart, soul, and mind are centered on God, we will see ourselves as uniquely created, God's very own.

Loving our neighbor is the way in which we show our love for God. When we love God with our whole being, we understand that our neighbor is a child of God, one who is God's prized possession, just as each of us is. The truth is that every person is created out of love, for love. As Christ himself taught us, whatever we do for the least among us, we do for him. Loving our neighbor is, after all, our greatest act of faith, of discipleship, and of stewardship.

Evangelization and The Acts of the Apostles: How the Foundation was Laid

Take a moment to think about the Catholic Church of today. It's impact on our own lives and the world in general is amazing. Ever stop to think about how the foundation of the Church was laid after Pentecost? What did the chosen apostles do? How did they do it? Where did they do it? What about the larger group of disciples? What about St. Paul, one of the most impactful converts of all time? How does all of this define the Church we know today?

Want answers? Join us for Evangelization and The Acts of the Apostles. This 10-part video & discussion Bible Study combines insightful biblical study with Church teaching and practical advice to show how modern Catholics can effectively impact their world for Jesus Christ. The series is being offered on Thursdays, October 29 through January 21. Sessions include:

Oct 29	Why study Acts	Dec 10	Sacraments and the Spirit
Nov 5	Clothed with Power	Dec 17	Leadership in the Church
Nov 12	Proclaiming the Kerygma	Jan 7	Charisms of the Spirit
Nov 19	Signs and Wonders	Jan 14	Joy in Persecution
Dec 3	How Jesus makes an Evangelist	Jan 21	The Belly of the Beast

There is no cost for the series. Optional workbooks for personal study and prayer are available at cost. The ten sessions are scheduled allowing for breaks for the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year holidays. Questions? Contact Kathy Drinkwine at the Cathedral office or at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com.

Come Sing for Advent!

Children and youth are invited to sing at the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, December 20!

Join us for a special Children & Youth Choir
as we sing some of our beloved Advent hymns and help lead our parish in worship
during this beautiful season of preparation for Christmas.

Sunday, December 20

Gather & Rehearse:
10:00 a.m.

Mass:
10:30 a.m.

*No ongoing choir commitment is needed—
just come ready to sing!*

Children and youth of all ages who enjoy singing are warmly invited to participate.
