WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes in the Mass readings for the 28th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Isaiah 25:6-10a

- On the mountain of the Lord there will be a feast with rich food and choice wines.
- There will be no sorrow, only joy, for the hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain.

Psalms – 23:1-6

- "I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life."
- Psalm 23 is always popular, but note the table that God sets before us!

2nd Reading – Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

- Whether in abundance or need, all things are possible with Christ who strengthens us.
- We call upon the Lord, trusting that God will supply all our needs.

Gospel – Matthew 22:1-14

- Jesus offers a parable where the Kingdom of Heaven is likened to a wedding feast.
- Many are invited, but not all accept the invitation or come prepared.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Why is it important for you to do what Jesus asks of you?

Question for Youth: Each week we are invited to participate in Mass. When you are at Mass, how well do you really participate? How could you be more present in heart, mind, and spirit?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words who will be welcome and why they will be welcome, at the eternal banquet of God.

AN INVITATION TO THOSE WHO BECAME CATHOLIC AS AN ADULT

Did you become Catholic as an adult? Were you baptized Catholic as a child and became fully initiated as an adult? Yes? Then we need your help.

The formal process for adults to become fully initiated into the Catholic faith is called The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults – OCIA for short. This process has also been called RCIA. OCIA usually includes weekly sessions over a number of months culminating in sacraments at Easter Vigil.

Some adults have embraced the Catholic faith via a different experience – one-on-one sessions with clergy, a religious sister, or other designated adults. This type of formation often varies according to the needs of the individual and extenuating circumstances. Sacraments happened at different times.

Regardless of how (or where) you came into this Church, we would love to speak with you about your experience. Our number of inquiries is growing as is the need to be creative and responsive. We have recognized that an untapped resource for innovation and improvement can be found in those who have already navigated this experience. Would you be open to meeting with us?

We have planned an "OCIA Reunion" for Sunday, October 25 at noon in Kress Hall. A light lunch will be followed by small group discussions of your experience. We will be asking about the type of experience you had, what worked well, what was missing, etc. The discussion will finish by 2:30.

Interested in joining us? Please pre-register by contacting Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.ckk@gmail.com or by calling the Cathedral Office at 715 392 8511. Upon registering, a list of potential questions will be emailed to you prior to the event.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called discern entry into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.
