WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes found in the Mass readings for the 29th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Isaiah 45:1,4-6

- Cyrus, even though he did not know the Lord, has been chosen and anointed as ruler.
- With God's help, Cyrus will subdue nations for the sake of Israel.

Psalm – 96: 1,3,4-5,7-10

- "Give the Lord glory and honor."
- We sing to the Lord, giving glory and praise, as we worship and acknowledge God's might.

2nd Reading – 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

- Paul, with companions Silvanus and Timothy, greets the people in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Chosen by God, the people have received power through the Holy Spirit.

Gospel – Matthew 22:15-21

- The Pharisees and Herodians attempt to trap Jesus with a trick question about paying taxes.
- The Lord deftly sidesteps the trap and gives glory to God.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: In your young life, who has helped you know Jesus as a friend?

Question for Youth: We are supposed to give to God the things that are God's. What in your life is dedicated to God? How to you keep those things sacred?

Question for Adults: If you were to write a thank you note to someone or to a group who has helped you grow in faith, to whom would you write and what would you say?

AN INVITATION TO THOSE WHO BECAME CATHOLIC AS AN ADULT

Did you become Catholic as an adult? Were you baptized Catholic as a child and became fully initiated as an adult? Yes? Then we need your help.

The formal process for adults to become fully initiated into the Catholic faith is called The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults – OCIA for short. This process has also been called RCIA. OCIA usually includes weekly sessions over a number of months culminating in sacraments at Easter Vigil.

Some adults have embraced the Catholic faith via a different experience – one-on-one sessions with clergy, a religious sister, or other designated adults. This type of formation often varies according to the needs of the individual and extenuating circumstances. Sacraments happened at different times.

Regardless of how (or where) you came into this Church, we would love to speak with you about your experience. Our number of inquiries is growing as is the need to be creative and responsive. We have recognized that an untapped resource for innovation and improvement can be found in those who have already navigated this experience. Would you be open to meeting with us?

We have planned an “OCIA Reunion” for Sunday, October 25th at noon in Kress Hall. A light lunch will be followed by small group discussions of your experience. We will be asking about the type of experience you had, what worked well, what was missing, etc. The discussion will finish by 2:30.

Interested in joining us? Please pre-register by contacting Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.ck@gmail.com or by calling the Cathedral Office at 715 392 8511. Upon registering, a list of potential questions will be emailed to you prior to the event.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith. There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called discern entry into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.ck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

Evangelization and The Acts of the Apostles: How the Foundation was Laid

Take a moment to think about the Catholic Church of today. Its impact on our own lives and the world in general is amazing. Ever stop to think about how the foundation of the Church was laid after Pentecost? What did the chosen apostles do? How did they do it? Where did they do it? What about the larger group of disciples? What about St. Paul, one of the most impactful converts of all time? How does all of this define the Church we know today?

Want answers? Join us for Evangelization and The Acts of the Apostles. This 10-part video & discussion Bible Study combines insightful biblical study with Church teaching and practical advice to show how modern Catholics can effectively impact their world for Jesus Christ. The series is being offered on Thursdays, October 29 through January 21. Sessions include:

Oct 29 Why study Acts
Nov 5 Clothed with Power
Nov 12 Proclaiming the Kerygma
Nov 19 Signs and Wonders
Dec 3 How Jesus makes an Evangelist

Dec 10 Sacraments and the Spirit
Dec 17 Leadership in the Church
Jan 7 Charisms of the Spirit
Jan 14 Joy in Persecution
Jan 21 The Belly of the Beast

There is no cost for the series. Optional workbooks for personal study and prayer are available at cost. The ten sessions are scheduled allowing for breaks for the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year holidays. Questions? Contact Kathy Drinkwine at the Cathedral office or at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com.
