WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes that emerge in the Mass readings for the 30th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading-Exodus22:20-26

The Lord commands the people not to molest an alien, for they were once aliens in the land of Egypt.

When lending money to a poor neighbor, the people are not to act as extortioners.

Psalm - 18:2-4,47,51

"I love you, Lord, my strength."

We bless God who is our shield and refuge, the rock that keeps us safe from our enemies.

2nd Reading - Thessalonians1:5c-10

Paul reminds the people how, through the Holy Spirit, they imitated his example and became a model for all believers.

Their example has spread through the region, giving praise to Jesus Christ.

Gospel - Matthew 22:34-40

A scholar of the law tests Jesus, asking which commandment is the greatest.

Jesus quotes Deuteronomy 6:5 and Leviticus 19:18, showing that we are called to love God and one another.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: We show our love for Jesus by loving our friends and family. Share one way that you show your love.

Question for Youth: Jesus tells us that we are to love others as we love ourselves. Do you love yourself? Can you see the good that God has put within you? Do you find it easier to love others or yourself?

Question for Adults: Repeat the two commandments which Jesus teaches today in your own words. For each of them, share how it has become part of your life.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

Those with no faith-based experience.

Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to discern entry into the Catholic Church.

Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.

Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.

Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

(OCIA begins Thursday, October 29 at 6:30pm)
