WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's take a look at some of the themes that we find in the Mass Readings for the Solemnity of All Saints.

1st Reading-Revelation7:2-4,9-14

John has a vision of a great multitude from every nation, race, people, and tongue.
Having survived a time of great distress, these saints worship God with all the hosts of heaven.

Psalm - 24:1-6

"Lord, this is the people that long to see your face."
The sinless and clean of heart shall climb the mountain of the Lord.

2nd Reading-1stJohn3:1-3

We are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed.
When it is revealed, for we shall see him as he is.

Gospel - Matthew5:1-12a

They are blessed who face struggles in this life, for their reward will be great in heaven.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: When have you become a peacemaker? Among your friends? In your family? At school? Other times?

Question for Youth: All Saints' Day gives us a chance to remember the saints of our Church and of our lives. Who are the people who have been saints in your life?

Question for Adults: When you heard the Beatitudes today, which one did you hear most clearly as a summons for your own life?

BecomingCatholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

Those with no faith-based experience.
Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to discern entry into the Catholic Church.
Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.
(OCIA begins Thursday, November 5th at 6:30pm)
