WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's look at some of the themes that surface in the Mass readings for the 33rd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Proverbs 31:10-13,19-20,30-31

- A worthy wife reveals her goodness through her service and care for others.
- "Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised."

Psalm - 128:1-5

- "Blessed are those who fear the Lord."
- Those who follow the Lord encounter domestic prosperity.

2nd Reading - 1st Thessalonians 5:1-6

- The day of the Lord will come suddenly, like a thief in the night.
- We stay alert and sober, not in darkness but as children of the light.

Gospel - Matthew 25:14-30

- Jesus tells of the parable of the master who gave three servants different amounts of wealth (talents) based on their ability.
- The master returns and praises two of the servants who did what they could with what they had; "since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities."
- The servant who does nothing is chastised and turned out into the darkness.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Name one talent or gift that God has given you and tell how you have used it.

Question for Youth: Name three talents that you have. How can you use these talents in the next week to make someone's life better?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words how you are using your own gifts to enrich the reign of God.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

ANNUAL APPEAL WEEKEND

This weekend is our annual collection to support our brothers and sisters in need in our community.

Each year we provide over $100,000 in financial assistance. This fiscal year we assisted nearly 1900 households with some form of assistance. Half of these households received assistance in the form of information and referral to governmental or other agencies who could assist. Half of the households received direct assistance (monetary or goods) from our Society. Our members visited 243 times with individuals in their homes and 674 times with individuals in other locations.
Your generous support allows all of us to serve Christ through serving our neighbors. God bless you!

If you were unable to donate this weekend - checks can be mailed to: SVDP P.O. Box 98 Superior, WI 54880 throughout the year.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called discern entry into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?
For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.
