Mass Intentions

We are in need of mass intentions to fill our Saturdays into the fall months. Mass Intentions are a meaningful way to honor the memory of a loved one or to offer prayers for special intentions such as health, birthdays, anniversaries, or times of need. A suggested donation of $20 may be offered for each intention. Please contact the parish office to request a Mass Intention. Phone: 715-394-7919
Email: haswoffice@gmail.com.
Stop By on Mondays or Wednesdays from 9am-Noon.

Annual Lutefisk Dinner Planning Meeting – Saturday, November 14

Join us in the parish hall after Mass on Saturday, November 14, for a quick planning meeting for our upcoming Annual Lutefisk Dinner. It takes many hands to make this new tradition a success, and we need volunteers for everything from kitchen prep and serving to setup, and cleanup. Whether you helped last year or are looking to get involved for the first time, please stay after church to help us get organized!

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes that we discover in the Mass readings for the 32nd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Wisdom 6:12-16

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom for those who seek her in anticipation and vigil.
Filled with the perfection of prudence, wisdom keeps us free from care.

Psalm - 63:2-8

"My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God."
We pine and thirst for God, whose kindness fills us with joy.

2nd Reading - 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18

Our belief that Jesus died and rose offers us hope that all who have died in Christ will rise with him.
The Lord, with a word of command, will reveal his majesty and power through the resurrection of Jesus.

Gospel - Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus offers a parable about ten virgins - five wise and five foolish - who are waiting with oil lamps for the coming of the bridegroom.
Those that are ready are welcomed to the feast; those who are unprepared will be shut out.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: If Jesus came to your house today, what would you do to get ready for him?

Question for Youth: Even though you are still young, what strategy do you have to make sure you are "ready" for the inevitable moment when you will die?

Question for Adults: How are you preparing to be ready for that moment that no one escapes, the moment when you come to the end of your life as you know it now?

BecomingCatholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to discern entry into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like theexperienceforyouorsomeone you know?
