Applying for Financial Aid

Blackbaud Financial Aid partners with schools, dioceses, and scholarship programs to help analyze financial aid applications for families requesting assistance. Our application collects financial information to determine what a household can contribute to the cost of education according to our proprietary formula based on information provided within the application about income, assets, expenses, and debts. In order to provide an accurate assessment of financial need, it is important that all questions pertaining to your household are complete.

Our goal is to provide a fair and accurate, third-party objective analysis so that the most informed and equitable decision can be made when distributing financial aid awards to families.

Helpful tips

- ◆ Take your time and answer each question accurately.
- ◆ You will be able to save your application and come back to it at any time.
- ◆ Application will not be reviewed until it is submitted along with required documents.
- ◆ Be sure to complete your application before your school's deadline to be considered for aid.

You can search for your school by either entering the 5-digit school code for your school or searching for the school name, but using the school code is preferred because the 5 digit school code is unique to your school.
